The 29th Finale des Jeux de l'Acadie : June 27 – July 1, 2008

The Halifax
Citadel

The "Jeux de l'Acadie" brings young Acadians aged 11 – 16 together in regional competitive sports events, providing them with an opportunity to strengthen their sense of identity and community, and encouraging them to make new friends and gain leadership skills. The "Finale" is the annual culminating competitive event which brings together the regional finalists.

For the very first time in its history, the "Finale des Jeux de l'Acadie" is being held in Nova Scotia. In 2008, Halifax Regional Municipality is hosting the more than 1,000 young athletes from throughout Atlantic Canada, and as many coaches, chaperones and volunteers.

Volunteer Opportunities

The success of the "Jeux de l'Acadie" depends on the thousands of volunteers who support our youth every year. There are many shoes to fill and we need talented people to fill them – one of them could be you! You can choose among various areas of activity such as:

- Communications and Security
- Sporting Logistics
- Administrative Services: welcoming committee, athlete accreditation etc.
- Promotion and Publicity: information booths, media, mascot, etc.
- Athletes and Volunteer Services: medical, cafeteria, housing, etc.

We are also looking for certified officials for the eight sporting events.
