THE FLAME RELAY OF THE 29^E FINALE DES JEUX DE L'ACADIE WILL ARRIVE AT CITY HALL IN HALIFAX ON JUNE 6TH

(Halifax) June 4, 2008 - The Flame of the 29^e Finale des Jeux de l'Acadie will end its tour of Nova Scotia in the host city of Halifax on June 6th, at 1:00 p.m. The Flame left Tracadie-Sheila in New Brunswick on June 1st and has travelled thousands of kilometers cheering on Les Jeux throughout the Acadian regions of Nova Scotia.

The final leg of the tour of the Flame Relay will start on Friday, June 6th, at 9:30 a.m. at the Écoles du Carrefour and Bois-Joli in Dartmouth (201 Portage Avenue). It will then go directly to École Beaubassin (54 Larry Uteck Blvd. Halifax) where it should arrive around 11:00 a.m.

At 12:45 p.m. the journey will begin anew from Bishop's Landing (Monument des Acadiens), turn right on Lower Water Street and then left onto Salter Street. From there it will turn right at Barrington around 12:50 p.m. The Flame will arrive at Grand Parade around 1:00 p.m. when the Official Ceremony will begin.

Upon arrival of the Flame, Sonia Losier will sing O Canada and Ave Maris Stella as the Games Flag is being raised. The Flame will then be handed over to Mayor Kelly who will pass it to Roger Arsenault, President of the Comité Organisateur de la 29^e Finale, who will finally return it to the runner. On June 28th, the Flame will officially end its long journey at Exhibition Park during the Opening Ceremonies of Les Jeux.

The Comité Organisateur de la 29^e Finale hopes that there will be lots of supporters cheering on the Flame Relay which was made possible thanks to the support of Acadian Seaplants Ltd. Do not miss this unique event announcing the forthcoming 29^e Finale des Jeux de l'Acadie, a sports and cultural gathering of Atlantic Acadian youth, from June 27th to July 1st.
