Web Site Launch of the 29^e Finale des Jeux de l'Acadie

www.jeux2008halifax.ca

HALIFAX (April 23, 2008) – The Organizing Committee of the 29^e Finale des Jeux de l'Acadie is pleased to launch its official Web site. The Finale des Jeux de l'Acadie, a major annual sporting and cultural event for young Acadian and Francophone athletes from all four Atlantic Provinces, will occur from June 27 to July 1 in the Halifax Regional Municipality. Through this Web site, proudly displaying the red-white-and-blue colours of the Acadian flag, organizers welcome anyone interested in this friendly competition.

Our French website offers for the first time a section in English for all those interested in our activities. Add it to your 'Favourites' and browse through it on a regular basis as daily updates will provide details on schedules, locations, cultural activities, athletes, and much more! The site is highly dynamic and colourful, just like the Jeux!

For the very first time in its history, the Finale des Jeux de l'Acadie is being held in Nova Scotia and the Organizing Committee is looking for volunteers to help for a number of tasks. Details are available on the Web site, where you can also download the registration form.

Mr. Roger Arsenault, President of the Organizing Committee for this 29^e Finale, invites communities across the four Atlantic Provinces to check out the site and discover this unique event where the focus is on Acadian and Francophone youth.

Whether you are a spectator, visitor, volunteer or journalist, you will find everything you need at www.jeux2008halifax.ca.

An important media information session and press conference on this event is planned for early May. Stay tuned!
